15th November 2019

A lovely colourful end to our week. It was a difficult challenge for some classes but the children (and parents) did brilliantly to find things to dress in. This included homemade hats, dressing up clothes, Pudsey outfits, tutus and even a bed sheet! We shall blog the pictures. Altogether we raised £130.25.

Thank you all !

Also a massive THANK YOU to all the ladies in the kitchen, welfare staff and Julie & Carol for all their hard work to make Bring a Friend to Lunch another brilliant success. Sorry we couldn't fit everyone in but hope those that came enjoyed it.

Letter on the back.

We are experiencing quite a high level of illness at the moment which appears to be viral and includes sickness and upset tummy. There is a letter on the back with advice from Public Health and I would ask that you read it and follow it alongside extra thorough hygiene.

If you haven't already done so please can you go onto PARENT VIEW and fill in the questionnaire with your views about West Street as a school.
